Fees are being paid in full from the children and Maestro are not being paid their salary. When all the staff together requested salary from the principal. In response, the principal said that the school is closed due to the lock down. And all the staff were told that you should deduct the fees from the children yourself. Then you also take your salary and let me put food and drink in my house. While the principal is responsible for depositing the fees, not the entire staff. The rest of the private schools are being paid. Only in our school Staff not being paid. So we should be given salary so that we can manage our house expenses.
