Assalam-o-alaikum sir With great respect it is stated that i am teacher of Lims school and college located opposite to IKD hospital near to bismillah market. I belong to a very poor family. My father has been dead. I am the one who support the family finances. Sir as you know that government has lock down all institutions till june. In this crucial situation they had deduct my salary (10000) without any reason and secondly they had terminated me without any official letter in this crucial time. Sir it is humbly requesting that kindly take serious action against these mafias school owners.
