Contents

The management of the school has made deduction in salary of staff making COVID 19 as excuse, 10 % deduction are made from April salary and 25% will be made from May salary, this is totally unjustified and imoral as despite taking full fee from students they have deducted staff salary and in some cases the salary of teachers has fallen below the thrashold of 15000 applicable to daily wagger, in one case a teacher got 10200 salary? Is this justified? These schools are minting profit through out the year and COVID have no impact on thier earning the max is that parents will deposit the fee late due to lockdown, but these school administrators have made it a reason to deduct staff salary.
